

Match Fit Academy Expanding to Central Jersey

South Plainfield, NJ - Match Fit Academy continues its growth.

Match Fit Academy and U.S. PARMA Soccer Club have come together to expand Match Fit Academy into central New Jersey. The inaugural season will kick off with the 2023-2024 campaign.

Based out of South Plainfield, Match Fit Academy will provide development opportunities for youth athletes U8-U19 within the top flights of EDP. In addition to utilizing the day-to-day Match Fit Academy player development model, members of the academy out of the central location will have a direct pathway to the ECNL and USYS E64 platforms.

“We are very excited to expand into central New Jersey, providing more opportunities for players in the area with a clear pathway into the best leagues in the country,” Match Fit Academy Girls Director of Coaching Dominick Bucci said. “Our commitment to player development and coaching excellence will undoubtedly benefit the soccer community in the area. In addition, the indoor facility and new full-sided outdoor turf field, featuring two small sided fields, will allow us to not only build teams out of this location, but also house many of the future programs we are building out.”

Match Fit Academy will now also be centrally located among the existing divisions of Match Fit Academy, will provide a location for the entire #matchfitfamily to come together for the growth of the game for years to come.

Since coming onto the youth soccer scene, U.S. PARMA Soccer Club, soon to be known as Match Fit Academy, has provided an impressive, athlete focused pathway, leading to multiple collegiate commitments over the years.

“The merger with Match Fit Academy simply made sense on all levels for the staff and players,” U.S. PARMA Soccer Club President Phillip Iuliano said. “Being a member of a large and highly successful developmental system that features various opportunities for growth, extensive additional training venues, and more tools for college exposure is key. I am thrilled to present the full MFA Program to our group.”

Match Fit Academy will be hosting tryouts for the 2023-2024 season during spring of 2023.
